FOREWORD

Since the Armenian Issue (Question) initiation (1878) and the period after the Genocide of the Armenians (1894-1923) the new agenda (national program) for the final settlement of the Armenian Issue has not been formed, with the exception of the Newest armed liberation struggle and activity program during 1973-1985 period. Instead, Armenians abroad put on their agenda the discussions on the formation of local communities, the Genocide of the Armenians recognition and the issues related to the future of Soviet Socialist Republic of Armenia. The revival and the development of Soviet Socialist Republic of Armenia, the issues of repatriation were on the Soviet Republic of Armenia's agenda. The issues of Armenians of Artsakh, Artsakh and Republic of Armenia's security, aggression prevention and blockade reduction, self-determination, freedom and the establishment of independence and maintenance were on the Republic of Armenia's agenda.

And as in the late 1980's and early 1990's, Armenian social and political thought, in general, was not ready for the impending reality of Armenia's independence, so today he is not ready to irreversible impending reality of the Western Armenia's (including Cilicia) independence.

Today, however, we tend to believe that the ultimate resolution of the Armenian Issue's new agenda is being formed during 2004-2014 period, when on December 17th, 2004, in Shushi (Artsakh, Karabagh) the National Council of Armenians from Western Armenia was established. On the same day a Declaration on the Right to Self-Determination of the Armenians of Western Armenia has been adopted and in 2007 the Armenians of Western Armenia as an indigenous people, asserted their right to self determination.

On February 4, 2011 the beginning of the process of formation of the Government-in-Exile of Western Armenia was announced (now - the Government of the State of Western Armenia). In November 2013, through direct elections via Internet, the National Assembly (Parliament) of Western Armenia was formed, whose deputies at the first session of the Parliament on January 20, 2014, in Paris, elected the President of Western Armenia.

There should be a special mention about the activities carried out since 2006 within the framework of National Council of Western Armenia UN Expert Mechanism on Indigenous peoples, and the establishment of Public Institutions of Western Armenia for preservation of the existence and identity of the Armenian people. This forms the basis of the legal and political system of the State of Western Armenia, which also implements the whole process of protecting the rights of Armenians of Western Armenia.

Thus, it is visible that the new agenda on the regulation of the Armenian Issue and the issue of protecting the rights of Armenians of Western Armenia is closely related to two main questions:

- a/ The protection of rights of Armenians of Western Armenia towards Western Armenia, more strictly the protection of the rights of Armenians in Armenia, and
- b/ The formation of the State system of Western Armenia (Armenia).

This collection, in our opinion, presents the final settlement of the Armenian Issue, the protection of rights of Armenians of Western Armenia, as well as the key set of core section on legal and political documents for protection of Armenians rights towards Armenia, which forms part of the declarations and decrees, resolutions and statements

For many, the Western Armenia is considered as a lost territory and few people know that the State of Armenia was recognized as Armenian State by Paris Assembly as early as January 19, 1920. Many people do not value the important decisions made in 1920, which refers to the boundary configuration of the State of Armenia with Turkey, drawn by 28th U.S. President Woodrow Wilson's Department of State Arbitral Award and taken decisions are available in the peaceful Treaty of Sèvres, in the articles related to Armenia.

In fact, to date, the the decisions taken on the same international political and legal arena are sufficient already for the existence of the State of the Western Armenia (State of Armenia).

There are counter-arguments that if because Genocide of the Armenians are not living in these areas, therefore, decisions on the State of Armenia lost their relevance. But there are other nationalities besides Armenians, whose rights are being violated till now as well and also the Islamized Armenians living there are returning to their identity. Consequently, the establishment of State of the Western Armenia with boundary configuration, drawn by Wilson's Arbitral Award, again becomes urgent and could serve as a key to regional peace and peaceful cooperation.

In that sense, this collection is important, not only because of the little-known documents are summarized here, but it also includes the nowadays formulated political-legal acts by the continuers of those who struggle for the protection of rights, which makes the existence of the State of Western Armenia both reasonable and totally justified from legal and political point of view.

For those people, who know little about the current existence of the Western Armenia's State structures, may seem incredible, as they are not recognised by other States, including Armenia. But we think this is a demanded format, which so far has not been used and judging by the obvious interest towards this structure by number of leading countries, it is clear that this format is the only real and productive for the full and final settlement of the Armenian Issue.

CHAPTER I

THE LEGAL AND POLITICAL FRAMEWORK OF THE ARMENIAN ISSUE, AS WELL AS THE MINIMUM PACKAGE OF LEGAL-POLITICAL FRAMEWORK OF PROTECTING THE RIGHTS OF WESTERN ARMENIANS OF WESTERN ARMENIA

The legal and political frameworks of the Armenian Issue

It is true that since the Armenian Issue (Question) initiation from 1878, the Armenian Issue does not come to a fair solution, but the same process led to the establishment of the legal and political impressive package towards the solution of the Armenian Issue and for the peaceful, civilized and efficient Armenian-Turkish relations.

These are:

-San Stefano Treaty of Peace between Russia and Turkey, signed on February 19 (March 3), 1878, Article 16 says: " As the evacuation by the Russian troops of the territory which they occupy in Armenia, and which is to be restored Turkey, might give rise to conflicts and complications detrimental to the maintenance of good relations between the two countries, the Sublime Porte undertakes to carry out into effect, without further delay, the improvements and reforms demanded by local requirements in the provinces inhabited by the Armenians, and to guarantee their security from Kurds and Circassians". Russia will watch over the execution of reforms.

-Treaty of Berlin, signed on July 4-6, 1878 (January 13-July 13), Article 61 says: "The Sublime Porte engages to carry out without further delay the ameliorations and reforms which are called for by local needs in the provinces inhabited by Armenians, and to guarantee their security against the Circassians and the Kurds. It will give information periodically of the measures taken for this purpose to the Powers, who will watch over the execution of them".

Article 61 was a reversal of San Stefano Treaty Article 16, with completely flipped version of the content, according to which, based on the British political elite of the time, Lord Sherbrooke's figurative expression, it "shuts the way out from the hell" for Turkish Christians.

-In May 1895 the British, Russian and French Ambassadors joint scheme of reforms "May Reforms" in administration of Armenian affairs has been handed to the Sultan of Turkey, which included the implementation of juridical and other reforms in six provinces of Western Armenia: Erzurum, Bitlis, Van, Sebastia, Mamuret ul-Aziz, Diyarbakir. Other areas of the Ottoman Empire, populated by Armenians, were also subject to these reforms, such as Hadjn in Adana Province and Zeytun in Aleppo province.

-The Russian government presented his version of the Armenian Reforms, which was discussed in Constantinople, during Ambassadorial meeting on July 3 to 24, 1913. The project, which was prepared on the basis of May reforms project, prepared by the first translator of the Russian Embassy A. Mandelstam in May 1895 and the draft prepared by the Armenian Patriarchate of Constantinople, offered to create one Province out of six provinces (Erzurum, Van, Bitlis, Diyarbakir, Kharbert, Svaz). The governor was supposed to be a Christian Ottoman or, more preferably, the European, who had been appointed for a term of 5 years, with the agreement of the great powers. Based on their assignment, Vestenenke (the Netherlands) and Hove (Norway) had been appointed as inspectors.

-On October 27, 1915 the agreement on self-determination of Armenian Cilicia was signed between the representative of the National Council of Western Armenia Boghos Nubar Pasha and Francois Georges-Picot (Head of the Eastern Division of the French Ministry of Foreign affairs).

-On October 30, 1918 the Armistice of Mudros (in Mudros Harbour on the Greek island of Lemnos) was signed between Ottoman Empire and Allies of World War I, where:

Article 16 says: "The surrender of all garrisons in the Hejaz, Assir, Yemen, Syria, and Mesopotamia to the nearest Allied Commander and the withdrawal of troops from Cilicia except those necessary to maintain order".

Article 24 says: In case of disorder in the six Armenian vilayets (provinces) the Allies reserve to themselves the right to occupy any part of them".

-On January 13, 1918 in Petrograd the government issued the Decree on Turkish Armenia ("On Western Armenia" - by the editor), which says: "Russia proclaims the freedom of self-determination of Armenia. The Council of People's Commissars declares to Armenian people, that Republic of Soviets of Workers', Soldiers' and Peasants' Deputies protects the rights of Turkish Armenians from the territories occupied by Russia and proclaims the freedom of self-determination, including the right to independence". Later this thesis was included in 1936 Constitution of the Russian Soviet Federative Socialist Republic (RSFSR) as Article 6.

-In early 1919, the Armenian National Congress was convened in Paris. One of the important actions of the Congress was the election of "Complete Armenian Delegation" co-chaired by Avedis Aharonian and Boghos Nubar, and pre-prepared and presented on February 12, 1919 at Paris Peace Conference, the ratification of the requirements of the memorandum. The memorandum proposed the need to establish an independent Armenia and clarified its territory by uniting seven provinces of Western Armenia (including Trabzon), Republic of Armenia and Cilicia.

On February 26 Complete Delegation presented and repeated the main requirements of the memorandum at the meeting of Big Ten. The delegation was received on April 17, 1919 by US President Woodrow Wilson and assured that he will be doing everything possible to protect the territorial claims of Armenians. On January 19, 1920 the Paris Conference recognized de facto the State of Armenia independence.

-In 1919 in Constantinople's military court the trial of Ottoman Turkey ruling elite took place with the following accusations of Young Turk leaders for:

- a) Involvement of the Ottoman Empire in the First World War,
- b) Organization and implementation of Armenian's of the Ottoman Empire comprehensive homicide and deportations.

The court sentenced in absentia to death many of the Young Turk leaders.

-On August 4, 1920 the independence of Armenian Cilicia was declared.

-On August 10, 1920 The Treaty of Sèvres was signed, which 88-93 refers to The State of Armenia.

-On November 22, 1920 28th U.S. President Woodrow Wilson's Department of State released an Arbitral Award, the full name of which is: "President Woodrow Wilson's Department of State Arbitral Award on boundary configuration of the State of Armenia and Turkey, demilitarization of any portion of Turkish territory adjacent to the frontiers established and arrangements for access of Armenia to the sea"

The given examples are enough and even the minimal set of documents has real weight to have a clear understanding of the natural rights of Armenians and Armenia.

In fact it can be said that the main decisions were taken in order to solve the Armenian Issue, but they are not yet implemented. It should be noted that the time is ripe for their implementation. And the current tough reality is that no country and no nation in the Middle East will remain indifferent to the threats of the present and the future, if each of them in turn does not adopt the legal-political way of solving existing problems and conflicts.

All non-legal, that is arbitrary political decisions will keep the conflicting parties as hostages, countries and generations every fifty years with new strength will ferment conflict and confrontation, war and chaos in the Balkans, the Middle East, the Caucasus and Afghanistan. That is the area where the Turkish political elite are invited to take a responsible role. This is dangerous recommendation, which contains threats to all countries and peoples of the region, including Turkey and the Turkish Republic.

CONVICTION OF THE GENOCIDE OF THE ARMENIANS

By Great Britain, France, Russia

24 May, 1915

On May 24th, 1915 the governments of England, France and Russia came up with special joint declaration, where three large countries publicly characterize the Turkish actions against Armenians as crimes against "humanity and civilization" for which "personal responsibility is laid on every member of the Turkish government who participated in the carnages".

The text particularly says: For about a month the Kurd and Turkish populations of Armenia has been massacring Armenians with the connivance and often assistance of Ottoman authorities. Such massacres took place in middle April (new style) at Erzerum, Dertchun, Eguine, Akn, Bitlis, Mush, Sassun, Zeitun, and throughout Cilicia. Inhabitants of about one hundred villages near Van were all murdered. In that city Armenian quarter is besieged by Kurds. At the same time in Constantinople Ottoman Government ill-treats inoffensive Armenian population. In view of those new crimes of Turkey against humanity and civilization, the Allied governments announce publicly to the Sublime-Porte that they will hold personally responsible [for] these crimes all members of the Ottoman government and those of their agents who are implicated in such massacres".

DECREE ON TURKISH ARMENIA
(ON WESTERN ARMENIA)
29 December, 1917 (January 13, 1918)

The Council of People's Commissars declares to Armenian people, that Russian Government of Workers and Peasants supports the rights of Armenians of the occupied territories of "Turkish Armenia" and proclaims the freedom of self-determination up to full independence. The Council of People's Commissars recognizes that this right can only be exercised in a number of pre-approval of the safeguards that are absolutely necessary for the people of Armenia to hold a referendum.

The Council of People's Commissars recognises as a partial guarantee the following conditions:

Article A. Withdrawal of Russian troops from Turkish Armenia and immediate creation of Armenian national police (militia) to protect personal and material safety of Turkish Armenians.

Article B. Unimpeded return of Armenian refugees, scattered across the different countries to Turkish Armenia.

Article C. Unimpeded return of Armenians to Turkish Armenia, who during the war were forcibly exiled inside Turkey by the Turkish authorities. ... The Council of People's Commissars Council will insist on this condition during the negotiations with the Turkish delegation.

Article D. The establishment of Interim Government in Turkish Armenia. Deputies will be elected on the principle of democracy.

Stepan Shaumyan, appointed as Commissar Extraordinary for the Caucasus, will provide assistance to Armenians of Turkish Armenia in the implementation of Articles B and C, as well as for the formation of Mixed Commission to identify the date and ways of Russian troops' withdrawal, according to Article A.

The geographic boundaries of Turkish Armenia will be determined by the people's democratically elected representatives together with Muslims and other residents of neighboring disputed areas and the Commissar Shahumyan".

THE TRIAL OF YOUNG TURKS (1919-1920)

After the 1918 Mudros armistice, in order to get rid of the disgraced government of the Young Turks and prevent the possible punitive actions by the victorious Allies, the newly-organized Ahmed Izzet Pasha government, decided to bring the leaders of the Young Turks and the members of the Committee of the Party of "Union and Progress" (Ittihat ve Terakki) before court for involving the Ottoman Empire in the war and organizing Armenian massacres.

According to the decision of 16 December 1918, Enquiry Commissions were set up (General Chairman former Ankara Governor Mazhar Bey) for the purpose of collecting evidence such as encoded telegraphs, official writings, instructions, orders, as well as eye-witness accounts of the massacres of Armenians. The provinces of the Ottoman Empire were divided into ten investigative districts; prosecutors, inquiring judges and secretaries were appointed for each district. A number of ministers of the Young Turks' Government, party leaders, regional secretaries, attorneys, governors, servicemen and other officials were arrested. On 8 January 1918, Military Tribunals of first, second and third instance were established. During the court hearings, investigation was conducted into the criminal actions of the leaders of the Young Turks' Government; the members of the Central Committee of the "Union and Progress" Party, the regional secretaries and officials, the special organization that had committed the Armenian slaughters called "Teshkilat ve Mahsuse," as well as the organizers of the deportation and carnage of the Armenians of Yozgat, Trebizond and Вьюкdere (a suburb of Constantinople) and Harpoot.

Young Turks trial showed that the deportations and massacres of Western Armenians were not military or disciplinary measures, they were not either limited or had local nature in way how the perpetrator wanted to present, but the actions were deliberate and designed, carried out exclusively by the Central Committee of the Young Turk Party order, and killings were carried out directly by killers and other criminals released from prisons specifically for these purposes.

The trial of the leaders and ministers of the "Union and Progress" party began on 27 April 1919 and continued until 26 June (13 sittings) with intervals. On 28 May, the English Command suddenly exiled 77 prisoners to the island of Malta. The first verdict of the Young Turk perpetrators was reached on July 5, 1919. Four of the 31 criminals (Talaat, Enver, Jemal and Nazim) were sentenced to death in absentia. Some of the remaining 27 were sentenced to different prison terms, while a small group of accused officials were acquitted because of the lack of evidence. The verdict did not contain a single reference to the criminals who had been banished to Malta.

On 21, 23, 28 June 1919, the trials of the regional secretaries and other officials of the "Union and Progress" party took place. The verdict was reached on 8 January 1920. Three of the 36 people accused were sentenced to 10 years of imprisonment, the others to imprisonment of several years.

The verdict of the perpetrators of Yozgat massacres was reached on 8 April 1919. Yozgat Governor and Governor of Boghazlyan Kemal Bey were sentenced to death. Yozgat's Police Chief Tefik Bey was sentenced to 15 years of penal servitude.

The verdict of the perpetrators of Trebizond massacres was reached on 22 May 1919. Two of the eight criminals, Governor of Trebizond province Jemal Azmi Bey, and Responsible Secretary of the "Union and Progress" party Naim Bey, were sentenced to death in absentia; the others were sentenced to different years of imprisonment.

The verdict of the perpetrators of the Armenian and Greek massacres of Вьуьkdere was proclaimed on 24 May 1919. All those accused (4 people) received prison terms of several years.

The verdict of the active organizers of the deportation and slaughter of Harpoot Armenians was reached on 14 January 1920. Behaeddin Shakir was sentenced to death, and Responsible Secretary of the Party Resneli Nazim Bey was sentenced to 15 years of penal servitude.

The decisions and reports of the trials of 1919 to 1920 were published in the appendices of the Turkish official newspaper "Takvim-i Vekayi" ("Events Calendar). Though the Trial of Young Turks did not get wide reaction, but the documents (encoded telegraphs and letters) attached to the verdicts attest are unique evidence proving that the Genocide of the Armenians was politically organized and committed act. The documents collected during the court hearings and attached to the verdicts reached prove that the Armenian deportations were aimed at total annihilation of the Armenian population. This plan for a "final solution" was come out exceptionally on the initiative of the Central Committee of the "Union and Progress" party with instructions and secret orders received from the centre.

ACT OF THE DECLARATION OF CILICIA'S INDEPENDENCE

We, the undersigned, plenipotentiaries of the Christian community of Cilicia, declare:

Considering that during the Great War and as a result of it Cilicia was occupied by the allied forces, and remained under French rule for the entire period of the ceasefire.

Considering that all this time the Turks did not cease to disturb the peace and tranquility in the country, spreading death, destruction, disaster, with what they almost violated by their commitments and military ceasefire.

Considering that such attitude to our fellow believers cost the lives of tens of thousands of people and that French blood was also shed copiously with our martyrs.

Considering that even on the morning of the day of concluding peace with Turkey, many of our cities are under threat - in blockade or under fire from the bloodthirsty hordes, doing all this under the forgiving eyes of the Turkish authorities, who stand on the sidelines and always unable to prevent such atrocities and attacks if of course, assumed that they should wish to do this.

Considering that even in the condition of full reconciliation in this region, we have to continue for a long time to live for the sake of peace in a war situation that will not end, unless the military orders and actions taken by the French heroic forces, who have always unconditional full support of the Christian community that proved to be very useful to the success of the French forces.

Considering that even in those moments when we are preparing this statement, bullets of former rulers of this land sweep over our heads, and the same situation prevails in Tarson and Mersin.

Considering that it is inconceivable that the peace, signed in a foreign country, can be the cause of such situation.

Considering that 275,000 Christians of Cilicia, while remaining true to their fraternal feelings, their interests, aversion to the Turks and favor to the French, unwilling to return to terrifying memories accursed past, passed through pogroms, deportations, robbery, violence, humiliation and shame, are proud that they had not been broken because of victims and efforts, instead they can confidently state that paid the most expensive and most terrible ransom for the independence during this long and difficult period of the war and ceasefire.

Considering that Christian community Cilicia in any case - two US inspections or all of their appeals to the French authorities - consistently stated its unwavering decision not to recognize the return of Turkish rule.

Considering that in particular, along with their complaints sent to countries of the Entente and the Peace Conference on 31 March and 15 May, as well as before with their appeals, uniquely made it clear that will not be allowed to settle for half-measures, artificial decrees or unacceptable solutions that they in particular are extremely against the peace agreement, according to which Cilicia - historical, ethnographic, military and economically unified and non-shared, artificially divided into two parts, the first of which remained French Syria, and the other turned into a Turkish province.

Considering that the peoples they represent, after trusting expectations for a justice solution from the Allies, will suffer the most bitter disappointment when the final decisions of the Peace Conference will not satisfy their legitimate demands and secret hopes, and those who signed this the statement will fail to adequately meet the expectations of those peoples who trust them, then they all will rise up against this monstrous attempt, if we say that in Cilicia should be restored Turkish domination and rule.

Considering that until the last minute no assurances had been received that their demands are accepted, that the peace union will be changed properly, or they, even today, on the eve of the signing of the peace agreement, are in the most desperate because of uncertainty.

Considering that unequivocally the present confused situation and anarchy are partly the result of paralysis of the local Turkish authorities, and who now, if not a specific government holding in these circumstances the necessary power of the local authorities may, having won among all the respect and trust, to save the country from anarchy and total collapse. Because of all these reasons, and giving importance to all rights - the facts and noted in dating the aforementioned days - March 31 and May 25, two memoranda of arguments, the logical conclusion of which is this statement, we are also building on the eternal right of all peoples - to clarify our fate, right, which is the primary source of the immortal principles of the French Revolution, we solemnly declare: Cilicia, starting from today is a free country, it is absolutely independent of Turkey, provided with the local sovereign Christian board, which is under the patronage of France.

This separation of the land of Cilicia from the former Ottoman Empire, we consider as true and final and in the same form as Armenia, Syria, Palestine, Mesopotamia, Arabia.

In order to gain and maintain this independence, to drive away the enemy from our doors and save blockaded our cities and conquered areas, and to release from captivity our fellow Christians, we are ready for any sacrifice, we will put to the service of caring about our country France the full manpower of our peoples. Parts, religions, communities, Christian people, we are all united around a cherished goal.

We must work hand in hand in the name of moral, cultural and economic prosperity of the country under the auspices of France. We hope to make the renewal of Cilicia in Europe, the new center of civilization and development, where disparate Islamic nations on an equal basis will enjoy the benefits of freedom, progress, and guarantees that they were unfamiliar with the Turkish rule, and should bless the day when they are also separated from them.

Freedom under the auspices of France is an absolute condition for the survival of the Christians in this country. We prefer to die than to decide otherwise.

We believe that the generous and chivalrous France, who is the traditional protector of the Christians of the East, must appreciate the required equity, or should recognize our independence, by taking her under its protection.

Long live the independent Cilicia!

Vive la France - patronizing Cilicia.

The National Council of Armenians of Western Armenia

THE OFFICIAL DECLARATION OF THE DELEGATES TO THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY OF WESTERN ARMENIA ON THE RIGHTS OF ARMENIANS OF WESTERN ARMENIA

Considering the following:

- For thousands of years, the majority of Armenians lived in Western Armenia as a native population of the region, where they founded a stable and prosperous state and created cultural values;

- Under Ottoman rule, Armenians have suffered permanent persecution, massacres and forced deportations culminating in the Genocide of 1915-1923, after the massacres of 1894-1896 and 1909, making two million casualties. Therefore, the Armenians of Western Armenia, survivors Genocide, were uprooted from their ancestral homeland, and dispersed throughout the world.

- During the First World War, Russian forces liberated Western Armenia, and Armenian National Council applied to France to recognize the Independence of Western Armenia (called "Turkish Armenia"), and on December 29, 1917 (January 13, 1918) by the official decree Russia recognized the independence of Western Armenia, by which the rights of Armenians from Western Armenia were under their protection.

- According to the Sykes-Picot agreement, signed on 9 and 16 May 1916 in Cilicia, France bestowed the protectorate mandate for the independence of Armenian provinces of Tigranakert (Diyarbakir), Kharberd and Adana, at the same time according to the agreement with the representatives of the Armenian National Delegation, based on which the creation of the Western Legion (in future Armenian Legion) will be solved.

- After the fall of the Russian Empire, the Armenian sovereignty was restored by the introduction of a Independent Armenian Republic on a portion of Eastern Armenia. But after two brief years, Soviet Russia and Kemalist Turkish armies invaded the young Republic of Armenia. After butchering Nakhichevan territories of Kars, Javakhk and Artsakh (Karabakh), a tiny Soviet Republic of Armenia was created as part of the Soviet Union until 1991.

- In order to remedy this situation and find solutions to their problems, representatives of Western Armenia held two conferences, one in 1917 and another in 1919 in Yerevan. This second Congress has set up an executive body, which elected 12 MPs from Western Armenia, who became so called representatives in the Parliament of the Republic of Armenia.

- The peaceful Treaty of Sevres of August 10, 1920, signed by the Allied Powers on the one hand, and Turkey on the other hand, asked the "Contracting Parties agree to submit to arbitration by the President of the United States of America the question of defining the border between Turkey and Armenia in the provinces of Karin (Erzurum), Trebizond, Van and Bitlis, and then ratify this decision and by this to prescribe clauses regarding Armenia to have access to the sea and the demilitarization of the portion of Turkish territory adjacent to that border."

- Since then the Armenians of Western Armenia continued their quest for justice in the world, based of the following facts:

- After the cessation of activities of the National Congress and the National Delegation, which took place in Paris from February 1919 to July 1920, the Armenians of Western Armenia have never managed to establish duly elected representatives who defend their legitimate rights;

- A separate task assignment and separation of roles between the Western and Eastern parts of Armenian people, and the coordination of their efforts could contribute to find an optimal solution of their national problems.

Thus, we call for:

- The Armenians of Western Armenia themselves, the only legally entitled to continue the action under the auspices of the Armenian National Council, which will promote the creation of the National Assembly of Western Armenia, whose delegates are elected from different communities in exile in different countries. The Armenians of Western Armenia are those, who would value their right to self-determination and the establishment of their state of law.

Affirming that the Armenians of Western Armenia are equal to all other peoples in dignity and rights, while recognizing the right of all peoples to be different, and to be respected as such,

Affirming also that all people contribute to the diversity and richness of civilizations and cultures, which constitute the common heritage of mankind,

Affirming further that all doctrines, policies and practices based on or advocating superiority peoples or individuals on the basis of national origin, racial, religious, ethnic or cultural differences are racist, scientifically false, legally invalid, morally condemnable and socially unjust,

Reaffirming that the Armenians of Western Armenia, in the exercise of their rights, should be free subject to any form of discrimination,

Concerned that the Armenians of Western Armenia were deprived of their human rights and fundamental freedoms and that, among other consequences, they were genocided, and colonized dispossessed of their lands, territories and resources, thus preventing them from exercising, in particular, their right for development in accordance with their own needs and interests,

Recognizing the urgent need to respect and promote the inherent rights and characteristics of Armenians of Western Armenia, especially their rights to their lands, territories and their resources, which derive from their political, economic and social and culture, their spiritual traditions, histories and philosophies,

Welcoming the fact that the Armenians of Western Armenia are organizing to improve their situation in political, economic, social, cultural spheres and end all forms of discrimination and oppression wherever they occur,

Convinced that control by the Armenians of Western Armenia of events affecting them and their lands, territories and resources will enable them to strengthen their institutions, cultures and traditions and promote their development in accordance with their aspirations and needs,

Recognizing also that respect for indigenous knowledge, cultures and traditional practices contributes to setting sustainable and equitable development of the environment and proper management,

Emphasizing the need for demilitarization of the occupied lands and territories of the Armenians of Western Armenia and contribute to peace, progress and economic and social development, understanding the friendly relations among nations and peoples of the world,

Recognizing in particular the right of families and communities to retain responsibility for education, training and well-being of their children,

Recognizing also that the Armenians of Western Armenia have the right to freely determine their relations with other states, in a spirit of coexistence, mutual benefit and full respect,

Considering that treaties, agreements and other arrangements between States and Armenians of Western Armenia is a legitimate subject of international concern and responsibility,

Recognizing that the United Nations Charter, the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights and the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights affirm the importance of fundamental right of all peoples to self-determination, by which they determine freely their political status and freely pursue their economic, social and cultural development,

Considering that no provision of this Declaration may be used to deny any people its right to self-determination,

Urging States to respect and implement all international instruments, particularly those human rights, which are applicable to the Armenians of Western Armenia, in consultation and in cooperation with the peoples concerned,

Emphasizing that the United Nations has an important and continuing role to play in promoting and protecting the rights of Armenians from Western Armenia,

Believing that this Declaration is a further important step towards the recognition, the promotion and protection of the rights and freedoms of Armenians of Western Armenia and the development of relevant activities of United Nations agencies in this area,

DECISION N° 03/29/2011

The National Council of Western Armenia

The National Council of the Armenians of Western Armenia In Accordance With the V-th Convention Respecting the Rights and Duties of Neutral Powers and Persons in Case of War on Land (The Hague, 18 october 1907) Makes a Declaration of Neutrality Positive, Armed and Permanent For the Western Armenia And Armenians of Western Armenia

PREFACE. «Etiam hosti Fides servanda»

Considering the losses that humanity and the Armenians have suffered in terms of human, spiritual, cultural, material and territorial, during the first and the second World War, Considering the truth of the fact that humanity is now in deep crisis of psycho cultural, moral, psychological, economical and political, which poses a threat of collision of civilizations, and the outbreak of a third World War,

Considering the International Convention on neutrality at The Hague, October 18, 1907, "Convention (V) respecting the Rights and Duties of Neutral Powers and Persons in Case of War on Land", as a legal path for the humanity and the Armenians, to avoid intrastate and interreligious conflicts, and antagonisms and wars,

Taking into account that the absence of state power in Western Armenia, has deprived the Armenians of Western Armenia to have the opportunity to be part of the Convention (V) of The Hague, "respecting the Rights and Duties of Neutral Powers and Persons in Case of War on Land", of October 18, 1907, and from its natural right in the organization of a complete self-defence, given that if the Armenian State had existed as an independent authority, it would certainly have benefited from the conditions of the "Convention (V) respecting the Rights and Duties of Neutral Powers and Persons in Case of War on Land", The Hague, October 18, 1907, including those of the first International Peace Conference of 1899,

Considering it necessary to emphasize the fact that deserves to be remembered with a particular attention, when on May 24, 1915, the Triple Entente, namely Great Britain, France and Russia, were the first who manifested themselves in a joint declaration against the policy of extermination of the Armenians by the Ottoman government, describing the atrocities committed against Armenians, as; "these new crimes against humanity and civilization", (1)

Based on the historical fact that the Armenian Cilicia proclaimed its independence on August 4, 1920, but France, bypassing the agreements of October 27, 1915, between the representative of the National Council of Western Armenia Boghos Noubar Pasha and Francois Georges-Picot (Head of the Eastern Division of the French Ministry of Foreign affairs) on self-determination of Armenian Cilicia, disarmed and abandoned the Armenians of Cilicia, for which reason, the independence of Cilicia did not survive. (2)

This year is the period, when on the basis of international standards, the Ottoman Empire was dismembered, resulting in the creation of independent Arab states,

Also based on the fact that from 1918-1920, the liberation struggle of the Armenian world that is to say the provinces of Nakhitchevan, Zankezour, Artsakh, Djavakhk and the Armenian Republic have been subject of encroachment by the Turkish and Azerbaijaneese armed forces,

And the fact that, when the Republic of Armenia was awaiting the acceptance of its request as a state member to the League of Nations in 1920, the Kemalist Turkey was carrying out a new aggression against the Armenian people in Armenia, to make inapplicable the peaceful Treaty of Sèvres, but also the Arbitral Award of the President of the United States of America,

Woodrow Wilson, about the demarcation of Turkish and Armenian boundaries, and other historical realities, and the creation of a sovereign Armenian State,

And other historical events, which for decades has prohibited the Armenians' right to develop autonomously and freely on their own territory as indigenous people,

And finally, according to the UN declaration on the principles and basic international standards, which reaffirm our commitment to the principle of a peaceful settlement of conflicts in order to contribute to regional peace and security, guaranteeing the right of peoples to develop and progress freely,

By this decision the National Council of Western Armenia
Declares

1. The Positive Neutrality, Armed and Permanent of the Armenians of Western Armenia, in the occupied territories de jure and de facto of Western Armenia, taking into account first of all,

a) the Arbitral Award of the 28th President of the United States, Woodrow Wilson, November 22, 1920, with respect to the demarcation between Armenia and Turkey, (3)

b) As well as the Armenian Cilicia, his status consistent with the statement of "the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples" of the UN General Assembly of 14 December 1960, resolution 1514,

c) And finally, towards the Armenians of Western Armenia, which have the ancestral rights, also historical, cultural, civilized, state founder, undeniable, irrevocable, and imprescriptible in accordance with the UN declaration on the "rights of indigenous peoples", September 13, 2007,

2. The declaration of Positive Neutrality, Armed and Permanent of the National Council of Western Armenia applies towards the Armenians which have been granted citizenship and those who have not yet, based on the fact that they are not Armenians of Diaspora, as presented so far, but Armenians of Western Armenia, who have established residence in various parts of the world as a result of deportations and the genocide of the Armenians.

3. Armenians of Western Armenia, including, the Armenian households of emigration, have the right to not participate in wars of aggression, the overthrow of States, in the national and religious conflicts, in the so called clash of civilization, and violence that arise, massacres and genocides, even in chaotic situations fuelled and pushed, according to the "Convention (V) respecting the Rights and Duties of Neutral Powers and Persons in Case of War on Land", The Hague, 18 October 1907,

4. Armenians of Western Armenia, including, the Armenian households of emigration, have the right to defend themselves from repeated violence, assaults and deportations, and the right to defend their home country against external aggressions, according to the article 51 of the United Nations Charter concerning the "right of individual and collective self-defence".

5. Armenians of Western Armenia, including, the Armenian households of emigration, have the right not to take part in the aggression carried out by their home country against another country or in the internal political conflicts, and have the right not to take part in civil wars, according to the "Convention (V) respecting the Rights and Duties of Neutral Powers and Persons in Case of War on Land", The Hague, 18 October 1907,

Given the joint statement of the main political forces of the Armenian community in Lebanon as an example of the willingness of the Armenians of Western Armenia who want to live and to grow in peace and safe. During the civil war of 1975-1990, in order to overcome the political crisis inside the country, these forces had taken the decision to apply the "Positive Neutrality of the Armenians of Lebanon".

6. Armenians of Western Armenia, in all circumstances when they are forced to protect their Positive Neutrality, Armed and Permanent, organize Armed Forces to maintain peace throughout the country, in accordance with the defence of public order and the territorial safety of the populations, according to the "Convention (V) respecting the Rights and Duties of Neutral Powers and Persons in Case of War on Land", The Hague, 18 October 1907,

7. Similarly, the Armenians of Western Armenia, the Armenians that have been deported or emigrated from their homeland by force during different periods and for various reasons, all have legitimate rights, moral, historical, civil, political and civic to implement the policy of Positive Neutrality, Armed and Permanent, because the League of Nations, then the UN and the International Community have not adequately defended the natural rights, permanent and inalienable of the Armenians and Armenia.

8. It has been notified in this regard, on the basis of the dispositions containing in the documents of the International Advisory Committee created by the League of Nations, on its deliberations in a report on issues relating to the " Confiscation of the Armenian refugees properties by the Turkish government" (2 August 1929), and the decision N° 60/147 on the United Nations' Basic Principles and Guidelines on the Right to a Remedy and Reparation for Victims of Gross Violations of International Human Rights and of Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law" adopted on December 16, 2005.

9. Armenians of Western Armenia, that is to say, Armenian households of emigration, have the right not to be part in political wrangling and secondary interests in order to focus on fundamental national issues within a sphere of legal equality.

10. The 10 million Armenians dispersed throughout the world have the ability to assume a majority and establish security in Western Armenia, of which they are the rightful successors, and allowing necessarily (art. 29 of the Treaty of Sèvres) the implementation de facto of the Arbitral Award of the President W. Wilson.

11. The National Council of Western Armenia recommends the Western Armenian Government in exile to carry out his legislative, legal, organizational and constructive activities according to the policy of "Positive Neutrality, Armed and Permanent of the Armenians of Western Armenia and Western Armenia" in accordance with the principles of legal policies that "Western Armenia is a sovereign democratic state, Positive, Armed, Permanent and independent".

12. The Armenian National Councils' statement on the "Positive Neutrality, Armed and Permanent for Armenians of Western Armenia and Western Armenia" comes into force de jure from the transmission of the declaration, and de facto 60 days after submission of the said act of Declaration to the Government of the Netherlands, according to the "Convention (V) respecting the Rights and Duties of Neutral Powers and Persons in Case of War on Land", (The Hague, 18 October 1907).

Mr. President,

The National Council of Western Armenia and the Armenian Assembly of Western Armenia (registered with the UN as part of commissions; WIPO - World Intellectual Property Organisation, and EMRIP - Expert Mechanism on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, United Nations Human Rights Council and ECOSOC - Economic and Social Council)

Also the Government in Exile of Western Armenia, having its seat in Paris, FRANCE, asks with this official letter to the Government of the Republic of Turkey to officially recognise the reality of the genocide of the Armenians, repeated crime committed against the Armenians and the Armenian Civilisation by the successive Turkish Governments, namely the ottoman, Young Turks, and Kemalist, between the years 1894 to 1923, and stop at once its policy of denial.

There were nearly two million Armenian martyrs due to a recurrence of crime premeditated and executed on the part of successive Turkish governments.

And nearly a million Armenians who were victims of deportation, and statelessness and assimilation without their free, prior and informed consent.

Today, as Aboriginal people, about ten million Armenians are living outside their homeland because of the continuation of Armenophobic policy from the Republic of Turkey.

The National Council of Western Armenia and the Government in Exile rejects categorically the politicisation of the issue of the genocide of the Armenians, centralizing the committed crime only in the year 1915.

The genocide of the Armenians began in 1894 by the massacres of Sassoon, because of which the hamidie regiments had been organised from the year 1891.

The National Council of Western Armenia and the Government in Exile divides the evidence of the genocide perpetrated by Turkey in three periods;

1. 1894 - 1896 genocide committed by Abdul Hamid II,
2. 1909 the genocide committed by the young Turks in Cilicia, known as the massacres of Adana,
3. 1915 - 1923 genocide committed by the governments of Young Turks and Kemalist.

Also, it is demanded by the Government of the Republic of Turkey, to fully acknowledge the responsibility for the crime of genocide against Armenians, planned and executed by the Turkish state, based on the documents of historical and legitimate archives, as among others,

- "On May 24, 1915, The triple Entente, Great Britain, France and Russia were the first states to come forward with a common statement against the policy of extermination by the ottoman government, for which they have qualified the violence's and massacres committed against the Armenians as; "new crimes against humanity and civilization".

- In 1919, the awards of the special military court in Constantinople,
- From 1965 - 2010 the number of countries recognizing the genocide,
- In 1984, the award of the Peoples' Permanent Tribunal,
- In 1985, the resolution of a Human Rights Sub-Committee of the UN,
- In 1987, the European Parliaments' resolution,
- In 2007, the Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples,
- In 2011, the decision of the Supreme Court of Argentina.

The Prime Minister of the Government in Exile of Western Armenia to UN Security Council members, the States that have signed the Treaty of Sevres, the International Association of Member States On the rights of Armenians from Western Armenia

Every nation has the right to live, the right to develop and the right to have a future.

Armenians have also the right to live, develop and have a future, Armenians of Western Armenia, Armenians living in the Middle East, who, incidentally, earned those rights by rich civilization past, creative present and by the light of faith towards future.

Note that the Armenians living in the Middle East region re-settled because of genocide towards Armenians by three Turkish governments in the 1894-1923, as a result of the planned criminal policy, which was condemned on May 24, 1915 by Great Britain, Russia and France, describing it as a "crime against humanity".

As mentioned above, the rights of Armenians in the cradle of homeland (Western Armenia) was recognized and approved by international community in the 1920s, but they were not implemented. During that period it was the great shortcoming of the international community, which is dictated by the narrow interests of some political-military calculations. But it is unforgivable to repeat the same mistake with the same consequences today, in this difficult historical period of the region's countries and peoples, taking into account the fact that for sustainable peace and peaceful cooperation it is necessary to implement and find a final solution to a number of difficult issues, including The Armenian Issue

Therefore, for solving the problems of Armenians living abroad, particularly in the Middle East and Syrian Armenians, we suggest:

-implement and carry out the right of Armenians of Western Armenia to return to their cradle of homeland, with ensuring all legal and political obligations and rights, including the establishment of an independent state, taking into account the US 28th President Woodrow Wilson' Arbitral Award in 1920 and the allocated space to Armenia according to this arbitral award, which is occupied till now.

-implement and carry out the immediate granting of independence to Cilicia based on the Declaration of Cilicia Independence adopted on August 4, 1920 and UN Declaration on "Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries", adopted in 1968.

-implement and carry out demilitarization of the territory of Western Armenia and Cilician Armenia, taking into consideration:

-The decision of the National Council of Western Armenia and the Government-in-Exile of Western Armenia on "creation of Armenians of Western Armenia and Western Armenia Permanent, Armed and positive neutrality policy", adopted on 29 March, 2011

-and the appeal to UN Security Council Members by the National Council of Western Armenia and the Government-in-Exile of Western Armenia, where it is suggested to implement and carry out the US 28th President Woodrow Wilson' Arbitral Award and demilitarization of the territory of Western Armenia and Cilician Armenia, based on the resolution of the National Council of Western Armenia and the Government-in-Exile of Western Armenia on neutrality.

APPEAL

to UN Security Council, UN Members States, the States that have signed the Treaty of Sevres on the Formation of Self-defence forces of Armenians of Middle East

As a President of the organization, which promotes worldwide human rights, democracy and civilized values, especially on regional global security and peace, we consider it our duty to inform you about the decision on the formation of self-defence forces of Armenians of Middle East. Accordingly, we invite your attention to the actual facts which caused this decision-making.

The occupation of Kessab in Syria by the Syrian radical opposition, and the new deportation of Armenians of Kessab, which show that Syrian Armenians, Armenians and Christians in the Middle East have reached a dangerous level on the safety and security of life and property, xenophobia and intolerance, threats of violence and genocide and the continuing series of provocative actions.

We think it is important to mention that with present new threat of racism and genocide against Armenians and Christians in the Middle East, it is revealing the following realities particularly towards Armenians of Syria and the Middle East, which generated in the past, has now been disclosed again and it is quite possible that they will continue in future with the new strength:

- the new cynical fact of deportation reopened the memory of the Genocide of the Armenians and the necessity to relaunch the case of its recognition, condemnation and compensation,

- the necessity to reopen the issue of implementing and revising the package of rights of Armenians of Western Armenia,

- real danger awakened Armenians from the whole world, as it happened after the Genocide in Sumgait,

- the necessity to reopen the set of issues related to the security of Armenians in the Middle East, Armenia and Artsakh

Given this reality, taking into consideration the fact that there is a need to guarantee the security of property of Armenians of Syria and Armenians in the Middle East and Armenians of Western Armenia and Christians living in the Middle East, and based on

- The decision of the National Council of Western Armenia and the Government-in-Exile of Western Armenia on "creation of Armenians of Western Armenia and Western Armenia Permanent, Armed and positive neutrality policy", adopted on 29 March, 2011 and

- Decree on the formation of Self-Defence Forces of Armenians of Western Armenia (adopted on December 26, 2012)

Declare

The beginning of the process of formation of the Armenian self-defense forces in the Middle East,

Under the flag of Western Armenia.

We believe that not only disregard of accepted norms of international law, but also the most cynical violation of them by the radical Syrian opposition gives us the exclusive right to declare that in the situation of military-political confrontation only by this kind of step it would be possible to establish a universal reconciliation and peace in the Middle East, and at this stage to establish at least the secure and peaceful islets, which tomorrow can and should become preventive and deterrent factors.

Thus, seeking withdrawal of the Armenian community in Syria and the Middle East from critical and dangerous situation and properly ensuring their safety, resistance and, of course, all the other fundamental rights, we ask you and expect your invaluable support in this matter.

APPEAL
to UN Security Council On the evidence of Deir ez-Zor Holy Martyrs
Armenian Church's explosion

Dear members of the UN Security Council,

Here again, another modern threats and challenges took place towards Armenian people and Armenia, this time addressed to one of the Armenian historical-cultural and spiritual values, the Holy Martyrs Armenian Church in Deir ez-Zor, which perpetuates the martyrs and victims of the Genocide of the Armenians in the region.

Exactly with the same logic, since 1988 with a new scale started and continues the barbaric destruction by Azerbaijanians of the historical-architectural and civilizational values, including the complex of Medieval Cross Stones in Nakhichevan, seems a bit the Genocide and deportation of 600 thousand Armenian citizens of Azerbaijan during 1988-1990 period.

It is no longer enough to repeat: "Unpunished crime gives a birth to a new crime." It is high time to identify and punish the criminal.

There are too many examples for Armenians, which started from the years of the Genocide of Armenians, 1894-96 and continued for about 30 years until 1923, from cultural genocide and deportations, genocide denial, falsification of the Armenian history and fabricated culture, xenophobia, racism and hatred towards Armenians ..., which further, in 1937, expressed in the same manner as the Dersim massacre and persecution.

Dear Presidency of the Security Council.

We invite you to condemn this barbarity and launch the International investigation to identify and punish the criminals.

The effective implementation of this action will lead to honor and respect to your internationally prestigious body.

We believe that according to "Crime and Punishment" principle, your judgment will be unmistakable and Armenians have the right to believe and thank you.

Otherwise, the programming of this dangerous operation by all means is becoming out of control, as a global threat to human values.

United Nations Human Rights Council Expert Mechanism on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (EMRIP)
Report 1
by Mr. Armenag Aprahamian, Chair of the Western Armenia National Council Delegation to the United Nations
Geneva, 7-9 July 2012

Item 4- Regarding Extractive Industries

Thank you Mr. Chair. Please allow me to congratulate you on your nomination as Chair and I would like to thank you for giving us the honor of participating in the Expert Mechanism.

Whilst we are looking at problems regarding extractive industries, we should be examining the restricted condition of free and prior informed consent and the self-determination of the indigenous peoples in Western Armenia and Anatolia.

Over two thousand kilometers of gas and oil pipelines go through our lands and territories with neither our consent nor our permission, destroying our resources, thousands of hectares of forests, archeological sites and affecting the environmental balance and our living space.

Fires and explosions regularly put the health of indigenous peoples in danger, all within the context of the war in Syria who shares a border with Turkey. Furthermore, there are hundreds of thousands of refugees braving all of these dangers, putting their own lives in danger; with indigenous women, children and elders fleeing Syria, sometimes only to die elsewhere.

Turkey has given shelter to over 35,500 Syrian refugees since March 2011.

Jordan has welcomed around 140,000 refugees in 16 months.

Libya is reported to have nearly 40,000 refugees.

The States' extractive industry policies and 'infinite' growth are bringing us to war, a war that could spread to all of Asia Minor.

This conflict has come from the non-respect of Treaties and commitments by States and companies who are still stakeholders.

Indigenous nations, particularly Armenians, Arabs, Assyrians and Kurds are very concerned and nothing can be done without their free, prior and informed consent.

A dialogue strategy for the application of international law cannot be restricted. Treaties, especially the Treaty of Sèvres and President Woodrow Wilson's arbitrary award, should be immediately applied through a decolonization process.

I would like to call upon the UN bodies and States to address this international crisis based upon law, which is a force for peace, made up of compromise, intelligence and wisdom, with the principal strategic goal of repairing and not destroying, as destruction only leads to chaos.

Thank you.

Item 5: Study on the Role of Languages and Culture in the Promotion and Protection of the Rights and Identity of Indigenous Peoples

Thank you Mr. Chair,

Today, the study presented by the Expert Mechanism showed, without doubt, the richness of Indigenous Peoples cultures.

For thousands of years, the Indigenous Nation of Armenians in Western Armenia has had the dangerous task of surviving on the most important strategic point on the road from Asia to Europe. This explains their history of being subjugated by conquerors who did not share any ideas concerning religion, nor their values, nor their rights, nor their art.

From then, we have created our own schools, and cultivated deep in our hearts, sentiments of the value of the human soul, the rights of families, individuals and citizens. We were able to do all of this whilst being submitted to a biological genocide through the kidnapping and rape of our children.

Then!... 1894 to 1923 were years of bloodshed, written in blood and fire in the memory of the Armenians, when everything was in upheaval. This contested genocide has still not been resolved even today.

However, we are going through a third phase of genocide: a cultural genocide. This was the case in December 2005 when the Azerbaijani army destroyed the medieval cemetery of Djughha in Nakhitchevan, which contained over 5,000 tombstones from the 10th century.

Today, Turkey's efforts of reconstruction and the restitution of symbolic pieces of Armenian heritage after our intervention last year are acknowledged, even if this is only a drop in the ocean of Armenian culture. Unfortunately, this gives rise to the illicit appropriation of sacred places without the free, prior and informed consent of our National Council. I recall the case of the city of Ani, the medieval capital of Western Armenia, and the lack of respect for treaties and arbitral awards which should be binding on States under international law.

In addition, our intellectuals in Diyarbakir (Dikranagert) are pursued by Turkish authorities for having organized weekly Armenian language lessons, a language which is in danger of extinction. Are there still places in the world where teaching an indigenous language, whether Armenian, Kurdish, Greek, Arabic or Assyrian, is a crime? While these languages are, on the contrary, an asset in a multicultural world!

Therefore, how can we believe that Armenian, Assyrian, Arabic and Kurdish refugees from Syria will be protected in Turkey, when learning their languages is considered a reprehensible act by the authorities? How can we believe that the aim of the war in Syria is to liberate and democratize Syrian society while, at the present time, our children in Western Armenia and Kurdistan are being hunted down by military planes and by the very same people who are in charge of waging this war!

I would like bear witness that, in face of the immensity of the culture of Indigenous Peoples, there is one point which unites us all, which is part of the fundamental criteria of being indigenous, but which does not appear in any definition, and which is that Indigenous Peoples consider their language as a means to communicate, that is to say, to commune with nature, not only animal, vegetable and mineral nature, but also our spiritual nature.

I hereby call upon the Human Rights Council and States to take into account that the processes of disintegration, denial, extermination, and the destruction of Indigenous Peoples' natural and cultural elements and their languages, will prevent the world from accessing the necessary levels of conscience, knowledge, wisdom and equilibrium, which alone will enable them to live in peace.

I conclude by citing Emil Cioran "One does not inhabit a country, one inhabits a language, a fatherland, it is that and none other!"

Report

by Mr. Armenag Aprahamian, Chair of the Western Armenia National Council Delegation to the United Nations

Geneva, 20 July 2015, Eighth session EMRIP

Mr. Chairman, since this is my first time speaking in this chamber during the Eighth Session of EMRIP, allow me to congratulate you on your election!

We support the fact that the cultural heritage of Indigenous Peoples includes the tangible and intangible manifestations of their way of life, their worldview, their achievement and their creativity, and that it should be considered as an expression of their right to self-determination and their spiritual and physical connections with their land, their territory and their resources.

However, Indigenous Peoples today are faced with two phenomena, the first being the acceleration of the destruction of their tangible cultural heritage:

- For example, the destruction of sacred sites, cemeteries such as the Jugha Cemetery, churches, and monasteries. Our archives make reference to 2,538 churches, 451 monasteries and 1,996 schools in Western Armenia.

The second is the acceleration of the illicit appropriation of their intangible cultural heritage, or their inclusion in the World Heritage Site list without the free, prior and informed consent of the indigenous people concerned:

- For example, the listing within UNESCO of the making of lavash bread or the inclusion of the sacred site of Nemrut or the fortress of Diyarbakir as World Heritage Sites. All of these examples linked to the cultural heritage of the Armenian People existed in Western Armenia long before Turkish colonization.

We nevertheless invite UNESCO not to forget treaties such as the Treaty of Sèvres and 28th US President W. Wilson's 1920 Arbitral Award for not listing as part of Turkey sites that would be found within the borders of Western Armenia.

However, Article 8.1 of the Declaration states that Indigenous Peoples and individuals have the right not to be subjected to forced assimilation or destruction of their culture. Furthermore, as you know, Articles 10, 11, 12 and 13 reinforce in their details the protection of tangible and intangible property of indigenous nations and peoples.

Therefore, when the destruction of the Jugha cemetery in 2005 was caught on camera and denounced by European institutions, our Assembly initiated a legal procedure at the level of the European Court of Human Rights, which dismissed us, suggesting that we were not direct victims of these criminal acts.

Our Assembly has participated in the struggle for recognition and implementation of the rights of Indigenous Peoples for over 10 years, and it represents an indigenous nation that has suffered genocide.

Not only do we declare ourselves direct victims, but we also demand an end to this humiliation, which serves to make us believe that we no longer exist as ourselves following the genocide suffered by our parents.

After all these years of hard work, one of the key steps, in order to be able to protect themselves legally, would be for Indigenous Peoples, including our Assembly, to be recognized as such by the United Nations in accordance with objective and factual criteria.

On this point we have the honor to let you know that we have forwarded to the Special Rapporteur a communication relating to compensations, restitutions, repatriation and reparations with respect to the genocide of the Armenians of Western Armenia from 1894 to 1923, as well as the consequences thereof.

Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

Armen Ter-Sargsyan
Speaker of National Assembly (Parliament) of Western Armenia
Beatris Nazarian
Secretary of the National Assembly (Parliament) of Western Armenia

ANNOUNCEMENT

Of the National Assembly (Parliament) of Western Armenia "About the strategy of the State of Western Armenia on the Genocide of the Armenians recognition, Condemnation and Compensation issues"

Western Armenia's strategy on the Genocide of the Armenians recognition, condemnation and compensation issues is built on the exact answers on the following questions:

- The Genocide of the Armenians was condemned in 1896, 1909, 1915, 1919. How the Genocide of the Armenians recognition and condemnation issues arose again?

- When the Genocide of the Armenians was carried out, which years, by whom and what is the chronology of the Genocide of the Armenians, 1915-1923 or 1894-1923.

- What is the damage to Armenians and Armenia caused by the genocide, whether that damage was assessed, are there any calculations, in other words, is there a complete package for the calculation of compensation for damage.

1. The Genocide of the Armenians was carried out in 1894-1923, during three successive Turkish governments: Sultans, Young Turks and Kemalist.

The Genocide of the Armenians was condemned in 1896, 1909, 1915, 1919 years:

1894-96 period: Sultan Abdul Hamid II organized the massacres and killed nearly 300 thousands of Armenians, 200 thousands were forced to religious conversion, 100 thousand Armenians were deported. The massacre of Armenians was carried out by the Turkish regular army, "the Turk" regiments, police and the Muslim mob.

Turkish policy of forced religious conversion during Hamid massacres of Armenians became the basis for starting the policy of islamization and continuation a more brutal manner.

1894-96 period: Hamid massacres and killings had been condemned by the leading figures of that time Jean Jaurès, Victor Berare, Anatole France, Johannes Lepsius, Lynch and others.

1909 year: Adana massacres handwriting was the same, as the Turkish government organized, carried out by a nationalist mob, and the Turkish army took part in. Nearly 30 thousand people were killed during Adana massacres. The Young Turks organized a trial related to the fact of genocide, but it was a mere formality. Moreover, through the artificially administered fire they tried to destroy the documents, related to that trial, but even though many items were saved and preserved to these days.

1915 year: On May 24th, the governments of England, France and Russia came up with special joint declaration, where three large countries publicly characterize the Turkish actions against Armenians as crimes against "humanity and civilization" for which "personal responsibility is laid on every member of the Turkish government who participated in the carnages".

The text particularly says: For about a month the Kurd and Turkish populations of Armenia has been massacring Armenians with the connivance and often assistance of Ottoman authorities. Such massacres took place in middle April (new style) at Erzerum, Dertchun, Eguine, Akn, Bitlis, Mush, Sassun, Zeitun, and throughout Cilicia. Inhabitants of about one hundred villages near Van were all murdered. In that city Armenian quarter is besieged by Kurds. At the same time in Constantinople Ottoman Government ill-treats inoffensive Armenian population. In view of those new crimes of Turkey against humanity and civilization, the Allied governments announce publicly to the Sublime-Porte that they will hold personally responsible [for] these crimes all members of the Ottoman government and those of their agents who are implicated in such massacres".

1919 year: Constantinople's military court the trial of Ottoman Turkey ruling elite took place with the following accusations of Young Turk leaders for: a) Involvement of the Ottoman Empire in the First World War, b) Organization and implementation of Armenian's of the Ottoman Empire comprehensive homicide and deportations. The court sentenced in absentia to death many of the Young Turk leaders, including Talaat, Enver, Jemal and Nazim, Kemal Bey, Cemal Azmin and Naim Bey, Behaeddin Shakir, which in future was implemented by Nemesis Armenian avengers.

In 1919 the assessment of the damage to Western Armenia was carried out.

In 1920 The Treaty of Sıvres was signed, which 88-93 refers to The State of Armenia and on November 22, 1920 28th U.S. President Woodrow Wilson's Department of State released an Arbitral Award related to Turkish and Armenian borders.

These facts indicate that using the provisions of the Sevres Treaty and Wilson's Arbitral Award the compensation for damage of the genocide of Armenians and Armenia, as well as the caused material damage compensation had been decided, signed, ratified, however, had never been realized.

Moreover, after 1923 everything was deliberately forgotten.

2. The Genocide of the Armenians condemnation time

As already mentioned, the international community after The Lausanne Conference, in the period of 1923-1965, skillfully skirted the issue of the Genocide of the Armenians and fall into oblivion.

It was possible to demolish the wall of oblivion in 1965 by the movement, claiming demonstrations, devoted to the 50th anniversary of the Genocide and, especially, in 1973-1975 by the national liberation struggle developed overseas, with great effort and sacrifice of Gurgun Yanikian, Gevorg Achemyan, Simon Simonyan, Armenian Secret Army for the Liberation of Armenia, the Genocide of the Armenians Justice Commandos and other organizations and individuals.

1965-1985 years were the years of the Genocide of the Armenians recognition. It was the time when in parallel with the development of the liberation struggle of Armenians, the world media was literally flooded by voluminous reports, interviews, articles, books, TV and movies about the Genocide of the Armenians and Armenia.

1985 and 1987 were the years of Gorbachev perestroika and adoption by the European Parliament the resolution for "a political solution to the Armenian question", which were immediately followed by the Armenians massacres in Sumgait, Baku, Ganja and other regions, deportation and the aggression against Nagorno-Karabakh and Armenia by the Republic of Azerbaijan.

The new era of national liberation struggle's second phase started during the war in Artsakh in 1988-1994, after the victory of which would really come the time for the condemnation and compensation of the Genocide of the Armenians, especially since, as a nation, we could resist the attempt for a new genocide of the Armenians.

Although precious time has been lost, but all is not lost.

You just have to accept that the Genocide of the Armenians recognition forced process is completed and you have to make the transition to international condemnation and compensation process of the Genocide of the Armenians.

3. The issue of the Genocide of the Armenians chronology: 1915-1923 or 1894-1923?

On this issue, from the legal position perspective, it is important to know at what time and by whom the Genocide of the Armenians was carried out. In that sense, the 1915-1923 period formulation can be rejected. The 1894-1923 period formulation and chronology is true and historically grounded, because three or more successive Turkish governments, the Ottoman, Young Turk, Kemal, carried out similar acts of extermination towards Armenians. To compare we can look at the National Council of Western Armenia's request dated on April 24, 2011 to the Turkish President Abdullah Gul.

It is for sure worth mentioning Hamidian massacres during the 1894-96 period, organized by Sultan Abdul Hamid 2nd, the Young Turks' massacre of Armenians in Adana in 1909, which are also episodes of the Genocide of the Armenians. We have no any legal, political, or moral right to ignore and fall into oblivion them, especially since they are very important steps and have a meaningful role in the whole chain for the future of Armenians' claim.

4. A complete set of compensation for damage caused by the Genocide of the Armenians:

In order to make the idea of a complete set of compensation for damage caused by the Genocide of the Armenians, it is important to just remember all the crimes perpetrated by three successive Turkish governments (Sultans, Young Turks, Kemals) against humanity and Armenians.

Simply let us list them:

- National superiority and arrogance, racism, formation of Pan-Turkism, its dissemination and advocacy in Turkish environment.
- Development, dissemination and propaganda of the plans and ideas to exile Armenians and carry out the genocide of Armenians.
- During 1894-23 period in the Armenian Highland, on the Ottoman Empire's territory, the planning, advocacy, preparation, provoking and carrying out the genocide of Armenians, embezzlement and plunder of their property. Destruction of more than two millions of Armenians, over half a million deportations from their cradle of homeland.
- In 1915 and in subsequent years implementation of the massacres and genocide, theft and misappropriation of their property together with Armenians also Assyrians, Greeks, Arabs (later since the mid of 1920s Kurds as well).
- In 1918 aggression towards the Armenians of Western Armenia, forcing the newly imposed Republic of Armenia to sign illegal contract.
- In 1918 carrying out the genocide of Armenians in Baku

- In 1920 the aggression against the Republic of Armenia, later with forcing to sign illegal and illegitimate treaties (1920, in Alexandropol and 1921 in Moscow) to the party subjected to aggression.
 - In 1937 carrying out the genocide and killings of Armenians in Dersim.
 - 1894-1923, 1923-2014 period: destroying Armenian civilizational values, including the historical and architectural monuments and churches.
 - Falsification of history, culture and civilization values of Armenians and other nations in the region.
 - Denial of the historical fact and reality of the Genocide of the Armenians, with unrealistic expectations to gain the time and postpone the suggestion to create of a commission of historians.
 - 94-year occupation of the territory allotted by Wilson's Arbitral Award, dated November 22, 1920
 - Illegal blockade of Armenia since 1993.

This is not a complete list of all the crimes perpetrated by the Turkish successor governments against humanity and Armenians. The crimes committed by Azerbaijan is the copied version of the program, planned by Turkey. However, we'll talk about them in other occasion, in another place.

To add to all this, till now the amount of damage to Eastern Armenia was not compensated, as well as the damage caused in 1923 and following years to the Armenian people and Armenia. But the crimes listed here, are direct evidence of the harm that can and should be calculated, thus to prepare the complete compensation package for the actual amount of damage caused to Armenians and Armenia.

As the final word, one important note as well. We can state that the Genocide of Armenians continues till now and will continue until the crime conviction and the full compensation for harm caused. And as long as the Armenians are not able to regain the power to live, develop and progress under the legal, political, national, state firm and unshakeable basis.
